

Scotland's Futures Forum: Summer Programme 2019

Leaders in Sport and Physical Activity: Judy Murray

Wednesday 5 June, 1pm to 1.30pm (with informal Q&A to 2pm), Committee Room 3

Join former GB Fed Cup captain Judy Murray as she reflects on her experience at the elite levels of tennis, the lessons she's learned and her aspirations for the future of sport and physical activity in Scotland. How can we use the success of international stars like her sons Andy and Jamie to build a healthy nation for the future?

Chaired by Alison Johnstone MSP, Co-Convener of the Cross-Party Group on Sport

In conjunction with SPICe | Refreshments provided

Scotland 2030: Leadership in Education

Tuesday 11 June, 5.45pm to 7.45pm, Committee Room 1

Continuing our look at schooling and learning in the future, this event will bring together leading figures from education for an interactive workshop on leadership led by Neil McLennan, Director of Leadership Programmes at the University of Aberdeen School of Education.

Chaired by Sir Andrew Cubie, Futures Forum director

In conjunction with the Goodison Group in Scotland | Light refreshments provided

Leaders in Sport and Physical Activity: Lee Craigie

Wed 12 Jun, 8.30am to 9.30am, the Members Room

Former pro mountain biker and new Active Nation Commissioner Lee Craigie reflects on her experiences, her new role to help build a country where more people can enjoy the benefits of accessible walking and cycling, and her vision for a healthier, more active Scotland.

Chaired by Graham Simpson MSP, Deputy Convener of the CPG on Cycling, Walking & Buses

In conjunction with SPICe | Refreshments provided

The Future for Nordic Horizons

Thursday 20 June, 5.30pm to 7.30pm, Committee Room 1

Since 2010, Nordic Horizons has brought Nordic experts to Scotland to share their experience and expertise from some of the world's most successful countries. Join organisers as they relive the highlights of almost a decade's work, demonstrate their new website, and discuss future ways to develop Nordic thinking in Scottish policy development.

With a welcome from Michael Russell MSP, former Futures Forum director

In conjunction with Nordic Horizons | Refreshments provided

Scotland 2030: A Sustainable Future for Urban Scotland

Wednesday 26 May, 6pm to 7.30pm, the Members Room

Life in Scotland's towns and cities is forecast to change significantly in the coming decades, as cities face the challenge of providing housing and services for new populations, while Scotland's towns look for new roles as traditional high streets disappear and services are centralised.

Join a panel discussion to consider the opportunities and challenges ahead and the role for communities in the regeneration of urban Scotland.

Chaired by Stuart McMillan MSP, Futures Forum director
